Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I'd like to register my protest at the proposed settlement. Microsoft is getting off lightly, and I cannot see that the proposed settlement is going to seriously hamper its drive to monopolize the computer industry.

As far as I can tell, all the things that ought to have been done to break Microsoft up and end its monopoly, haven't been done. Microsoft has proved that it can thumb its nose at our anti-monopoly laws, indeed, at our whole legal system, and come out unscathed. There ought to be some things that money just can't buy.

Respectfully,
Francine Taylor
